1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Fournier on July 27, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 11, line 1, "1" has been changed to --10-- for proper dependence.

2. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant: In Fig. 5, between "synchronization processing circuit B" and "memory B", an arrow pointed to memory B has been added. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above agreed upon drawing changes.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to show or fairly suggest a plasma display apparatus having the combination as claimed, including a pull-down circuit, a first memory, a sub-field development circuit that performs sub-field development based on signals from the pull-down circuit, a second memory for sub-filed development, a plasma module, a first synchronization circuit that generates a timing at which the signal undergone 2-3 pull-down processing in the pull-down circuit is input to the first memory, and a second synchronization circuit that generates a refresh rate at a timing of an integer-fold of a refresh rate of an original picture image, whereby a signal is read out from the first memory at a timing of the refresh rate of the original picture image and a timing of the refresh rate from the second synchronization circuit, which are different from the timing from the first synchronization circuit, and the read-out signal is input to the second memory, and a signal is read out from the second memory at the timing of an integer-fold of the refresh rate of the original picture image supplied from the second synchronization circuit, as recited in the claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
